We know that this will be a spectacular event, and we feel it would not be complete without your entry marching majestically down Tamiami Trail (US 41).

With your entry, you will become a part of history with the longest living tradition in Collier County. You will also be giving back to the community with your entry fee as Swamp Buggy, Inc. donates tens of thousands of dollars each year to local non profit and civic organizations alike.

We look forward to seeing you on Saturday with your friends & family to participate this spectacular event only found in Naples, FL.
